

see it differently

// AccelSee is embeddable all-in-one document viewer for web application, that supports many document formats and enterprise document management system. //

One for all

AccelSee supports wide range of popular document formats such as Microsoft Office, Open Office, PDF, Images and CAD.

Secure & Audited

Built with Information Right Management feature, AccelSee can help your organization to manage its documents security easily, without any additional software, you can control user rights (read, print, copy-paste) to your documents within a few simple steps. All user action with your documents also auditable.

Multiple Repository

Accelsee can access your contents that stored in different EDMS (Documentum or Sharepoint) or other content location (filesystem or FTP) at the same time.